

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

In Alphabetical Order

Mohammad ABO-KAZLEH

In May 1992, he graduated with a Bachelor of Political Sciences from the University of Jordan. Then he entered the faculty of Graduate Studies at the University of Jordan, (September 1993). He has worked as a correspondent and a press editor in Akhbar El-Esbou and Al-Liwa'a Newspapers successively. He completed his master of politics in 1995 with honor degree. In 1998, he was awarded the Sasakawa Young Leaders Fellowship (SYLFF) to study his PhD in the University of Malaya. In 2004, Abo Kazleh was awarded the Doctor of Philosophy from the Department of International and Strategic Studies in the University of Malaya. He wrote many articles on politics and social problems in popular newspapers and magazines. Currently, Abo-Kazleh is an affiliate researcher in Al-Zaytouna Center for Studies and Consultations, Beirut.

Sepil AÇIKALIN

She completed her undergraduate education at Gazi University, Management Department in 2003. In 2006, she has begun her post graduate education on Middle Eastern Studies at the Middle East Technical University which is still going on. Currently she is working as a Middle East researcher at International Strategic Research Organization.

Tayyar ARI

Tayyar ARI, is a Professor of International Relations at Uludag University. He received his B.A. degree from METU; M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from Istanbul University. He became assistant professor in 1991, associate professor in 1996 and professor in 2002. He specializes on International Relations Theories, Middle East, American Foreign Policy and Lobbies, and Turkish Foreign Policy. He has published several books and academic articles on these issues.

A. Füsün ARSAVA

She completed her undergraduate education at Ankara University in 1968 and she gained her Ph.D. degree at Munich University, Faculty of Law in the field of Public International Law with the scholarship of DAAD (Deutsche Akademischer Austausch Dienst). She worked as a lawyer in the department of Law Counselor at TRT between 1975 – 1978. In 1978, she began to work at Ankara University as a doctorate assistant. She made her associate professorship preparation in Munich University, Faculty of Law with the scholarship of Alexander von Humboldt Stiftung between 1981-1982. She gained her associate professorship in 1985 and gained her professorship title in 1990. Currently, she is currently working as an academic staff at Atılım University, Faculty of Law.

Cenap ÇAKMAK

He graduated from the Department of International Relations at Ege University. He has worked as a Foreign Trade Expert for a while. He received both his MS and PhD degrees in Global Affairs from Rutgers University, NJ, USA. He is currently studying as a post-doctoral fellow at the Center for Global Change and Governance of Rutgers University. He is the author of about thirty pamphlets, chapters in books and articles.

Yelda ERÇANDIRLI

She completed her undergraduate at Kırıkkale University, department of international relations between the years 2001–2005. She has attended her MA program at the same department of Kırıkkale University. She is writing her thesis about 'the power at the international political and possible strategies for power analyses' and She is taking doctoral lectures at the University of Ankara.

Kamrul HOSSAIN

Dr. Kamrul Hossain is a Senior Researcher in the Northern Institute for Environmental and Minority Law (NIEM) at Arctic Centre in the University of Lapland. He received the degree of Doctor of Laws from the University of Lapland. He has previously studied and earned degrees from the University of Helsinki, Finland; University of Aix-Marseille-III, France; and from the University of Dhaka, Bangladesh. Dr. Hossain has held the prestigious Sasakawa Young Leaders Fellowship in the University of Helsinki. He has also worked in the United Nations University in Tokyo as a 'visiting researcher'. At the moment he is engaged in the European Commission's trans-Atlantic partnership projects leading to EU-US and EU-Canada relations.

Brendon HOWE

Dr. Brendan Howe is a Professor of International Studies at Ewha Womans University, GSIS. Previous posts include Professor of International Relations at University Malaysia Sarawak, and Visiting Professor at Beijing Foreign Studies University. He has also taught at UC Merced, the University of Dublin, Trinity College, and held research positions at Korea National Defense University, Georgetown University and the East-West Center in Hawaii. Trained at Oxford University (Modern History); University of Kent at Canterbury (International Conflict Analysis); Trinity College Dublin (Political Science) and Georgetown University (International Law), he has published extensively on international security, humanitarian intervention, and international norms.

Hristofor HRISOSKULOV

He received his undergraduate degree in International Relations at the University of Sofia (Bulgaria) in 2000. Later on he completed his master study in Political science, sociology and public law at the Westphalian Wilhelm's University, (Münster-Germany) in 2006. He is a Ph.D. candidate at same university since 2006.

İbrahim KAYA

Graduated from the Faculty of Political Sciences, Ankara University with BA (1992). Completed his LLM in Public International Law (1995) and PhD (2000) at the University of Nottingham and Keele University School of Law, respectively. Became Associate Professor of Public International Law in 2006. Holds an academic post at Canakkale Onsekiz Mart University since 1993. Worked for the Eurasian Strategic Research Center between 2001–2003. Currently, International Strategic Research Organization's (ISRO) Istanbul Director.

Sercan REÇBER

He graduated from the Istanbul University/ Faculty of Law in 2003. Furthermore he started his post graduate education at Uludağ University, Social Sciences Institute, Department of International Relations in 2006. He is still continuing his post graduate studies. In 2007, he started to work as a research assistant at Uludağ University Faculty of Economics and Administrative Sciences, the Department of International Relations. He has been working as a research assistant at Uludağ University Faculty of Law, the Department of International Law since 2008.

Zeynep YÜCEL

Dr. Yücel is a research assistant in the department of International Relations at Uludağ University. She graduated from the department of International Relations at Uludağ University in 1998. In 2007, she submitted her Ph.D. thesis related to European security and defense policy. European Union, European security, ESDP, energy security policy, geopolitics of Turkey and its region are main study fields of her.