

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

In Alphabetical Order

Evren ALTINKAŞ

He completed his undergraduate at Dokuz Eylül University, Department of International Relations in the year of 1998 and started to work as a research assistant at the same department in November 1998. He completed his MA in Mediterranean Studies at King's College, London in 2000. Later on he completed his M.Sc. in International Relations, METU between the years 2000-2003, he also completed his M.Sc. in The History of Turkish Republic at Dokuz Eylül University between the years 2003-2005. He has started his Ph.D. education on Comparative History at Dokuz Eylül University in the year of 2005 and still working as a research assistant at the Department of International Relations, Dokuz Eylül University. His areas of interest are history, Middle East, Globalization and Culture.

Hakan ARIDEMİR

After his graduation from the Istanbul University, Faculty of Political Science, and Public Administration Department in 2000, he has been appointed as research assistant into the Public Administration Department of the Dumlupınar University. In 2003, He completed his post graduate education after submitting his thesis entitled as "The Evaluation of Euphrates and Tigris Rivers In Respect of International Law within the context of Middle Eastern Water Issue". He is still continuing to his doctorate education in Marmara University, Social Sciences Institute and he is a research assistant at the same University.

Esat ARSLAN

Esat ARSLAN has completed his undergraduate education in Ankara, he completed his post graduate study on "Defence Sciences, Public Management" branches. Later on he had his PhD degree on "History of Turkish Republic" from Ankara University. He worked at Turkish Embassy at Damascus Embassy as a military attaché. He had his associate professor degree after coming back to Turkey. Assoc. Prof. Dr. Esat ARSLAN, who has been working at Bilkent University since 2000 as the History of Turkish Republic Coordinator, was rewarded with the "Medal of Merit of Turkish Republic Government" on March 29, 2000. With regard to his contribution on Armenian studies, he was rewarded with the "Armenian Special Reward" by ASAM (Center of Eurasia Strategic Studies) in 2002. At the mean time, Assoc. Prof. Dr. Esat ARSLAN has been the member of the executive council of Turkish Commission of International Military History. Esat ARSLAN, who has been studying at Syrian Government Archives, Iran Foreign Affairs Document Archives, Washington National Archives Department and Library of Congress in USA, he worked, in "Diplomatic annex Financial Forum Turkish daily newspaper, in 2001-2003 as a foreign policy analyst . Having his four books printed, in the recent times, he has been writing the monthly articles in 2023 magazine, as a foreign policy strategist.

Bestami Sadi BİLGİÇ

Bestami S. Bilgiç is an Assistant Professor of International Relations at Biga Faculty of Economics and Administrative Sciences of the Çanakkale Onsekiz Mart University. He did his B.A. (International Relations-1997) and M.A. (International Relations-1999) at Bilkent University. He then spent a year in Greece on an Onassis Foundation Fellowship. He received his Ph.D in History at the George Washington University in 2004. His area of interest is Balkan History and Politics.

Burak COP

Burak Cop studied international relations at Galatasaray University, Istanbul. He's currently working on his dissertation about the self-defense of states against terrorism as part of his LLM studies at the University of Kent at Canterbury. He also works as news editor at Sky Turk, a Turkish national TV channel, and his political articles are irregularly published in Turkish national media.

Hasan DURAN

Assistant Professor Duran graduated from Istanbul University, Faculty of Economics and International Relations Department in 1992. He completed his post graduated education at University of Istanbul, Institute of Social Sciences and International Relations Department in 1994 after submitting his thesis about "The Meetings of between Societies within the Cyprus Issue and The Role of General Secretary of UN (1974-1990)". Later on he took his Ph.D degree at the same university and department in 2001. He had been working as a research assistant at Afyon Kocatepe University between 1993-1999. He became a lecturer in 2000 and he had been working as a lecturer at Kutahya Dumlupinar University since 2002.

Hüseyin GÜZELER

He is working as a legal advisor at Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

Zerrin Toprak KARAMAN

She is Lecturer in Dokuz Eylül University, Faculty of Economics and Administrative Sciences, Department of Public Administration since 1978. She is the Head of Department of Public Administration and the Director of the Strategic Planning and Governance Centre, also has Membership of the "Executive Council of Local Agenda 21 in Izmir" since 1996. Her Books; Local Governments in Turkey, Urban Policy and Politics, Environmental Problems and Politics, The Council of Europe, for legislation to the Local and Regional Authorities. The Council of Europe is edited by Zerrin Toprak, Hikmet Yavaş and Mustafa Görün. Prof. Dr. Zerrin Toprak has researched written in English and Turkish languages about local government policy, urban and the environmental problems in Turkey.

Sezai ÖZÇELİK

He received his B.A. in International Relations at Ankara University-Faculty of Political Science in 1994 and a M.A. in Public Administration-Urban and Environmental Studies at Ankara University-Institute of Social Science. He had a M.A. in International Politics-International Peace and Conflict Studies in American University-School of International Studies in 1998. His Ph.D. was on Conflict Analysis and Resolution from George Mason University-Institute for Conflict Analysis and Resolution. He has taught at George Mason University. His research interests are environmental regime negotiations, simulation, content analysis, ethnic conflicts, Crimean Tatars, Islam and nonviolence, Islamic conflict resolution, preventive diplomacy, psychoanalysis, conflict resolution, peace studies, conflict resolution.

Zeynep ŞENGÜL

She is attending to her undergraduate education at Boğaziçi (Bosphorous) University / Istanbul.

Muzaffer VATANSEVER

She is attending to her undergraduate education at Çanakkale On Dokuz Mart University, International Relations Department.

Fatma YILMAZ

She is attending to her undergraduate education at Dokuz Eylül University, International Relations Department.

Muzaffer Ercan YILMAZ

He is currently an assistant professor of International Relations (IR) in Balıkesir University, Bandırma Economics and Public Administration Faculty. He graduated from Ankara University, Political Sciences Faculty, Department of International Relations in 1994. Then he went to the United States to complete his masters and Ph.D. He received his Master of Arts in International Politics, concentrating on Peace and Conflict Resolution, from The American University, Washington, D.C. in 1998. He gained his Ph.D degree in Conflict Analysis and Resolution from George Mason University, Fairfax, VA in 2002. He taught Introduction to Conflict Resolution at George Mason University for two semesters in 2002. He has been at Balıkesir University since 2003, teaching Political History and IR theory there. He has published several articles in Turkey and abroad, and has a forthcoming book on Conflict Analysis and Resolution. His research interests particularly include social identity and inter-group relations, peacekeeping and peacemaking in the post-Cold War era, international mediation, and Cyprus conflict.

Özlem YONAR

Özlem Yonar has graduated from Bilkent University Economic and Administrative Sciences Faculty, Economics Department. She continued her education with a master's degree on Institute of European Union and International Relations with major subject European Studies in Başkent University. She had submitted her master's thesis on "SMEs in EU Enlargement Process" in 2005. She is still working in International Strategic Research Organization (ISRO).

Hakan YÖRÜK

He is attending to his undergraduate education at Boğaziçi University, Department of Economics.